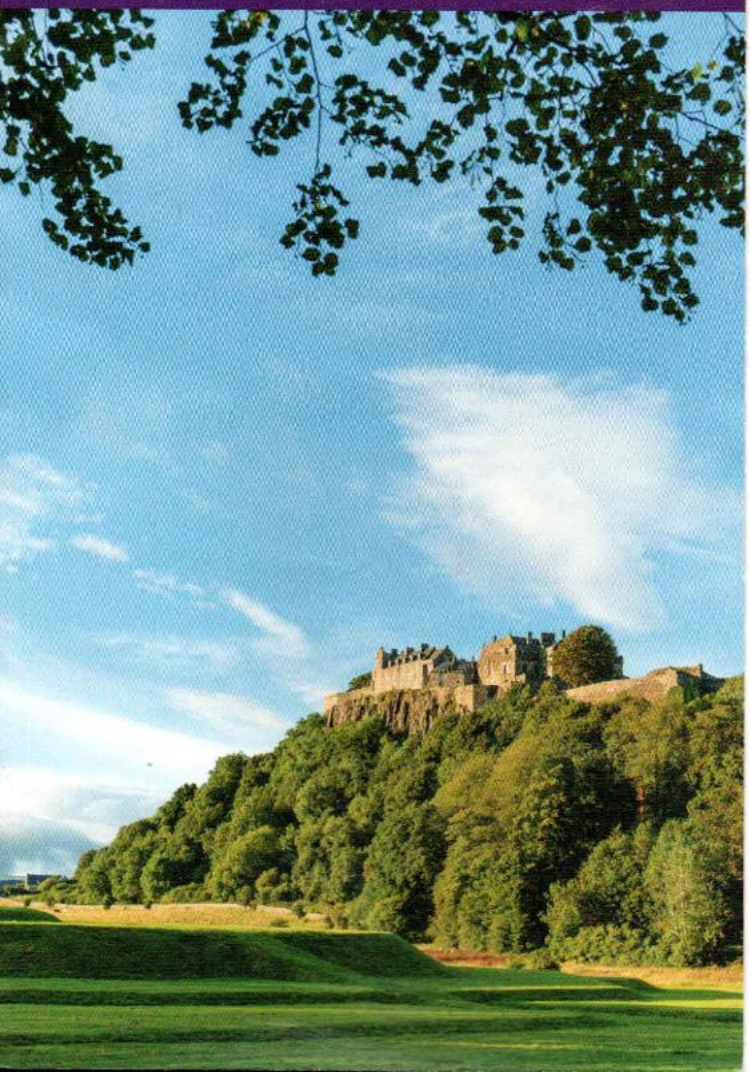
STIRLING CASTLE

STIRLING CASTLE

Official Site Map



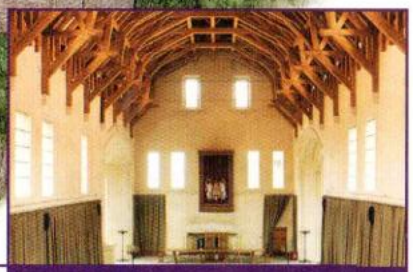
DON'T MISS...

Museum of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders
The story of Scotland's great Highland Regiment. History brought to life.

Chapel Royal
An elegant ceremonial space built in 1594 for the baptism of James VI's eldest son, Prince Henry.

Tapestry exhibition
Discover the story behind the Stirling Tapestries in the purpose-built studio where some of them were woven.

Stirling Heads
Oak carvings produced in the 1500s for the Palace ceilings. See both the carefully conserved originals and our fully painted replicas.



Great Hall
Completed around 1503, the castle's vast reception room, where royal couples held court and banquets.

Queen Anne Garden/ Castle Exhibition
Begin your visit at the introductory exhibition, and relax in the colourful royal garden.

Entrance

Palace
Explore the richly reconstructed rooms occupied by James V, Mary of Guise and their daughter Mary Queen of Scots.

- Tickets
- Audio guides
- Guided tours
- Gift shop
- Unicorn Café
- Picnic area
- Female toilet
- Male toilet
- Accessible toilet
- Baby change
- Recycling bins

Great Kitchens
Witness extravagant feasts in preparation in the reconstructed kitchens of the 1500s.

Living History
Meet the castle's residents and witness an exciting programme of special events.

Guided Tours
Free tours led by our experienced stewards. Ask any staff member for details.

Audio Guides
Available to purchase in any of six languages. Ask a member of staff on arrival.

Unicorn Café
Serving a delicious selection of hot food, light snacks and refreshing drinks throughout the day.

Castle Shops
Don't forget to visit our three shops to discover a wide range of quality gifts and souvenirs, including ranges exclusive to Stirling Castle. Go on – treat yourself!

For more information
www.historicenvironment.scot/stirling-castle

App Store Google play

For information about other Historic Scotland properties download our app

Upgrade to an Explorer Pass or Membership
If you intend to visit other Historic Scotland properties, you can save money by upgrading your Stirling Castle ticket to Membership or an Explorer Pass. Ask at the ticket office.

Access
Exploring historic sites can present many challenges to visitors, but we are committed to facilitating access. Please do not hesitate to ask our staff for assistance or advice during your visit. A full Access Guide is available to download from our website.

Official Souvenir Guide
The definitive guide to the buildings and history of Stirling Castle is available in six languages from all the castle shops.

All images © Crown copyright, courtesy of HES
Illustration by Stephen Conlin/Pictu Ltd.

0131 668 8999
customer@hes.scot

historicenvironment.scot

Historic Environment Scotland
Scottish Charity No. SC045925

OGL © Historic Environment Scotland 2022